- Possibly 'Google light' in Europe thanks to questions from French Conseil d'État on privacy law and the right to be forgotten 4 juillet 2016
Over 3 years ago, the European Court of Justice gave the famous Costeja ruling. Since then, it has been clear that search engines are also bound by privacy law and can (therefore) receive correction and removal requests. Privacy law also puts additional strict rule on the processing of so-called special ...
- French contract law reform 30 novembre 2016
The long-awaited French contract law reform just came into force on October 1st, 2016, pursuant to an Ordinance dated February 2016. This reform is one of the most important milestones in the elaboration of French contract law rules since the birth of the Napoleonic Code in 1804... The reform aims at ...
