Kane Tuohy was founded in Dublin in February 2009 by four lawyers upon their separation from a large commercial law firm.

Kane Tuohy has doubled in size since its establishment. As a team we are resourceful, reliable and responsive. We use our expertise wisely and effectively to ensure that our clients receive the best possible legal advice and, just as importantly, value for money. We apply legal knowledge and a practical approach to achieve the best creative, cost effective result.

Each partner is a recognised expert in his/her field and, as a firm, we are committed to partner involvement in managing each client's legal requirements and providing a quality service with a solutions driven sound commercial approach.

Kane Tuohy's experience covers a wide range of practice areas with a particular emphasis on commercial litigation, corporate recovery/turnaround, insolvency, commercial property, employment law, insurance law, commercial law, banking, data protection and debt recovery. We have an exceptionally strong and proven legal team who are backed by an experienced and dedicated support staff. Because we believe that such team work is the real key to success, our focus at all times is working with our clients to get to know their needs rather than merely working for them.
