Juan José García Adarve Managing Partner - TELFALink Partner

« The objectives of Adarve in joining TELFA were twofold: to better serve those of our clients seeking a full range of high-quality legal services in their European cross-border business activities, and to be part of a strong network of international but local law firms, able to cooperate and support each other for the benefit of those clients. Our membership has exceeded all our expectations.

Besides, our lawyers are now well-acquainted with their counterparts in all the other countries of the alliance, so when they have to handle a cross-border case, they build an international team right away and the work goes very smoothly. »
